Remember to keep in mind good nutrition and healthy preparation methods as you select your recipe.

Contest Categories/Divisions:

- Appetizer. Traditionally, an appetizer is a small dish or food that is eaten prior to the main course. When selecting recipes for this category, contestants should consider foods that are lower in fat, sodium, and calories so as not to ruin one's appetite.
- Main Dish. The main dish is usually the heaviest, heartiest, and most substantial dish in a meal. In a meal consisting of several courses, the main dish is served during the main course and is the featured dish of the meal. The main ingredient is usually meat or another protein food, but they may contain other foods.
- Side Dish. Side dishes are foods that are usually served along with a main dish or as accompaniments to the main course. Suggested dishes may include salads, cooked vegetables, cooked fruit, pasta, or rice dishes and/or combination vegetable dishes.
- Healthy Dessert. Healthy can still mean delicious when it comes to desserts. Dishes in this category should be served at the end of the meal or for special occasions. Contestants should modify traditional recipes with healthy substitutions and consider MyPlate and Dietary Guidelines when selecting recipes.

Contest Rules:

- 1. Introduction/Presentation. Junior contestants will start with a maximum three-minute presentation and Intermediates will have a maximum of five-minutes to introduce themselves and their dish. To earn maximum points, participants must use the presentation time to describe their inspiration in choosing your recipe, how recipe relates to the current food show theme, and the following areas of the scorecard: knowledge of MyPlate, Nutrition Knowledge, Food Preparation and Food Safety Concerns.
- 2. Question and Answer. Judges will have the opportunity for a four-minute interview asking questions applicable to the attached scorecard. It includes but is not limited to basic nutrition, food safety and preparation as well as project experiences. Judges may ask additional questions related to general food and health, food systems, food safety or food/health issues. Being familiar with the information from the recommended study resources in the Guidelines will improve your interview success.

This will allow judges to visually evaluate the dish you have prepared. Contestants are encouraged to practice proper food handling techniques when presenting food to the judges. Judges will not taste the food.

The food should be presented in a serving dish with a serving utensil provided by the contestant. In addition, a napkin to lay serving utensil on is allowed. The dish should be presented to the judges as if it were about to be placed on a table for a family dinner. In some instances, it is not necessary to present to the judges the entire recipe. For example, if a recipe makes two loaves of bread, only one loaf needs to be presented for judging. Contestants should serve judges what they deem is appropriate serving size for evaluation purposes. Paper goods for these servings will be provided by the food show committee. Contestants will serve one serving to the judging panel, not a serving to each individual judge.

If needed to safely transport the dish, contestants should bring serving trays. Serving trays will not be provided. Fancy or elaborate placemats, linens, centerpieces, candles etc. are not to be included with the dish as it is presented for judging interview. Contestants should only use serving dishes and utensils appropriate and necessary to present and serve the dish to be judged. Agents and leaders are encouraged to use discretion regarding this matter when counseling 4-H participants, members, or contestants for the state show.
